For T & M

This report is designed to provide enough essential information from an astrological perspective to help you decide the nature of the relationship, whether or not you wish to invest more time and energy into pursuing it and a glimpse into the relationship factors in the individual natal charts.

I will begin with a look at the seventh house, its ruler, the Moon and Venus in each natal chart.

M – Natal Chart Relationship Factors

- ❖ Sun conjunct Ascendant and Moon conjunct Descendant, North Node in Aries in the first house opposing the South Node in Libra in the seventh house: Together these elements speak of a need to find a balance between the needs of others and looking after the self. With North Node in Aries the challenge is learning to place your needs first.
- ❖ Yod with Mercury in Aquarius (ruler of the Virgo Descendant) sextile Venus conjunct Saturn in Aries in the first house, both inconjunct the Moon conjunct Pluto in Virgo in the seventh house: The planet(s) at the apex of a Yod demand our attention, in this case the Moon conjunct Pluto. You could end up obsessing about whether or not you are doing all you can for your family. The pull of the base planets and signs is quite different in nature. Mercury in Aquarius loves to consider the big picture and what's best for the collective. Venus conjunct Saturn in Aries can be very hard on self-esteem, always making you wonder why others find you attractive.
- ❖ Jupiter conjunct Uranus in Libra, both conjoined the South Node in the seventh house: This combination does suggest a partner who is independent, energetic and yet is willing to do what is necessary to stay in the relationship. In fact, may tend to compromise too much. It is up to you to learn to incorporate these qualities within yourself to bring a better balance in your partnerships.

It is easier for you to devote yourself to others rather than carve out time for your personal interests and pursuits but doing just that will make you a better partner in the long run.

T- Natal Chart Relationship Factors

- ❖ Sun in Libra, Capricorn on the Descendant, Sun opposing Saturn: Relationships are a very serious business for you and having the ruler of the Descendant opposing your Sun says you need a partner who feels the same. Once you make a commitment, you will do your best to uphold it.
- ❖ Moon in Gemini sextile Venus-Jupiter in Leo, Moon trine Mercury, Moon square Uranus: With Cancer rising, aspects to the Moon have added influence. The pleasant sextile between the Moon and Venus conjoined generous Jupiter makes it easy for you to stay upbeat emotionally and predisposes women in general to like you. Mercury trine the Moon is helpful for being able to talk about your feelings – once you open your Cancer shell. However, Uranus squaring the Moon is harsh and there are times when those who love you find your behaviors very unpredictable.
- ❖ Venus in Leo square Neptune in Scorpio: You are attracted to dramatic women who dress to catch men's eyes and also to Romance with a capital 'R'. It is important to make sure the reality can match your expectations. Either that or ditch your expectations . . . my first choice!

If you can find ways to express your need for independence and still be in a committed long term relationship, do it. Having a home and family is very important for you with Cancer rising and your Sun in the fourth house.

Noteworthy Synastry Aspects

- ❖ M's Moon-Pluto conjunct T's Pluto-Uranus, M's Jupiter-Uranus conjunct T's Sun: These two sets on conjunctions pretty much ensure an intense, dynamic, unpredictable relationship. There is great potential here for emotional turmoil, drama and lots of obsessive behaviors.
- ❖ Moon-Neptune *Intra-aspect, Moon-Pluto Intra-aspect: Between Neptune and Pluto, your feelings for one another will cover a wide spectrum from wildly romantic to outright obsession. All I can suggest is working diligently to steer clear of as many expectations both of personally and of each other – no easy task.
- ❖ Moon-IC Intra-aspect, Ceres-Descendant Intra-aspect: The Moon-IC intra-aspect is all about creating a family and home. Having a strong home base to return to and share is very, very critical in this relationship. The Ceres-Descendant intra-aspect is a conjunction in both cases – unusual and worth noting. One attribute of Ceres is nurturance albeit in a somewhat overbearing fashion. It is quite possible you two nurture and care for one another as a natural part of being partners. This aspect may be key in adding endurance to the relationship.
- ❖ Sun-Mars Intra-aspect: This is a great one for feeding each other energy and enthusiasm.
- ❖ Both Mars in Sagittarius, widely conjunct: There is no better indicator of being able to work together as a team and finding the experience very satisfying. Also makes for a good sex life . . .
- ❖ Ascendant trine Ascendant: I like this aspect for aiding in syncing your lives as individuals and in how others see and experience you as a couple.
- ❖ M's Venus-Saturn in Aries opposes T's Mercury in Libra: This aspect adds stability and helps ease communications between you. Venus-Mercury aspects are always good to see in synastry.
- ❖ Venus trine Venus, Mercury trine Mercury: Excellent for affection, caring and being able to sit down and talk things over comfortably.

Shorthand for Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus & Mars

- ❖ Libra Sun semi-sextile Virgo Moon, Pisces Sun square Gemini Moon: Not the most favorable exchanges between the luminaries since airy Libra and Gemini can live too much in the mind for watery Pisces and earthy Virgo.
- ❖ Gemini Moon square Virgo Moon: The key for these two Moons living together is both signs are Mercury ruled and open to discussing options. Generally speaking, Virgo prefers more peace and quiet in the home than lively, social Gemini.
- ❖ Mercury in Libra trine Mercury in Aquarius: This is a super connection because you both are able to take advantage of the detachment of air to take the necessary step back needed to communicate effectively.
- ❖ Mars in Sagittarius trine Venus in Aries, Venus in Leo trine Mars in Sagittarius: Great chemistry. You seduce each other with humor and passion.

Synopsis

Not bad at all with some very interesting connections between your charts. If you both can work on letting each other have plenty of space, acknowledge how important creating a home and family is and always do your very best to throw out expectations for your selves and for each other, you can pull this off.

*Intra-aspect: The same planets from both charts aspect each other marking those planets as having more weight in the relationship. Intra-aspects between personal planets are more easily accessible but those with outer planets aspecting personal planets have a fated quality.
